In Uppsala, you walk in the gardens of Linnaeus, follow in the footsteps of Nobel Laureates, and at the same time, meet todaysâ€"and tomorrowâ€™sâ€"smartest teachers and researchers. Here the wings o the past meet the promises of the future.

Today Uppsala University leads the world in several fields.

Uppsala University has accepted the challenge of educating students to be future leaders that can work in an ever more globalized and unstable world. Our students are the future. The life of the student here is unique, and the University lives in symbiosis with Uppsala as a city of culture.

Meet the world at Uppsala University! We are an international university that recruits the most prominent teachers and researchers. We have excellent contacts and collaboration with other leading higher-education institutions around the world, and our students can meet the world both here in Uppsala and by studying abroad.

Uppsala University ranks among the top 100 universities in the world. We are a revered and a forward-looking University. Perhaps our greatest strength is found in our living traditions and the will to constantly renew ourselves.

Eva Akesson

Professor, Vice-Chancellor of Uppsala University
