The Improvement Plan of TERA Political System by Mr.lennon

Article published on July 1st 2012 | Computer

MMORPG TERA political system is a major feature of this exciting game, and has seen much improvement. As a leader of the second set of candidate services on their server, it's time to take a look at this popular game system will be changed.

Accordance with the original idea, players want to become a leader in two ways: the election or the conquest of it requires candidates and their associations in the battlefield will be marked. However, the amendment of the current battlefield has not been completed, the production team adds a third competition.

In the new system, candidates still need to select the country, but they also need to select a campaign type. If they choose to direct elections, you need to update their ranking and then vote in the campaign in the countryside. If they choose the path of struggle, you need to file in the location of the competition, and other candidates of the local Guild vs. Guild PvP combat.

When after the start of the phase of the competition, the other guild members will be eligible to become a target. However, the guild vs. different from the normal 24 hours of fighting guild, and its duration as long as a week. Guild vs. Guild have appropriate rules, but to kill the level 40 character to mark a single member of the Association every day for their guild to win scores are capped. Guild vs. Guild battle between the leaders and does not replace the normal guild vs guild battle. Moreover, even if you can not hostile Association low level characters who get points, but can still kill.

Guild vs Guild leader and progress battle voting contest, players of the Association candidates can view the notes of their own guild, but can not be attributed to other competitors. After the end of the campaign, each region received the most points of law of the Corporation to decide what area, if the split seems the first to reach the score of the Company to win.
