Article Side
John Steinert Possesses Good Time Management Skills by John-smith

Article published on March 29th 2012 | Business

A visionary leader, John Steinert aims at achieving a leadership position that can allow him to plan, organize and facilitate organizational training, solutions, support and development, in order to produce extraordinary business results. He has significantly contributed in the organizationâ€™s vision of learning, which includes providing leadership to shared decision making for the organizationâ€™s strategic plan and improvement process. Based on the needs analysis and organizational goals, Steinert designed, developed and facilitated curriculum opportunities including in-person and E-learning lessons. Furthermore, he is popular as a go-to-leader and has maintained a record of accomplishing leading key projects as well as managing several initiatives like education, research and support.

John Steinert is a persuasive and strong communicator, and possesses effective presentation skills, which have been proven through his teaching success. Furthermore, he has been recognized by the senior management several times, due to his outstanding performance, project management as well as for accomplishing district goals and objectives. In order to improve the competency and efficiency of the employees, he thoroughly evaluated their strengths and weaknesses and also carried out several cross-training exercises. Steinert is a well qualified professional. In December 1993, he received his Bachelor of Education degree in History/Secondary Education, from Trinity International University, based in Deerfield, Illinois. Later, from 1997 to 1999 he attended National-Louis University in Wheeling, Illinois, and received his Master of Education degree in Administrative/Educational Leadership, in June 1999.

John Steinert is an extensively experienced professional. From August 1994 to July 2001, he worked with Gurnee, Illinois based Woodland Middle School, as a Social Studies Teacher. Thereafter, he joined Highland Middle School in Libertyville and served the institution as an Associate Principal until July 2005. Later, from July 2005 to November 2011, he served as the Principal of Deer Path Middle School, Lake Forest, Illinois. Steinert follows a collaborative approach and believes in establishing strong interpersonal relationships. He has played an important role in helping teams and individuals to achieve common and shared goals. He is a good listener and possesses excellent time management, prioritizing and multi-tasking skills. He is a highly organized professional and gives huge importance to details. Apart from this, he also has the ability to learn new technologies and to easily adapt with the changing circumstances.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/john-steinert-possesses-good-time-management-skills.htm - Article Side

John-smith - About Author:
John Steinert is a good listener and believes in maintaining strong interpersonal relationships. He possesses advanced skills in MS Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Project, Outlook, and Applicant/Employee tracking systems (Applitrack).

Article Keywords:
robzmars

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!