Mission Impossible Ghost Protocol is Tom Cruise's fourth international spy series that is an action, adventure thriller. Film goers will enjoy 133 minutes of action and humor and definitely will enjoy the flick.

Mission Impossible - Ghost Protocol was released on December 26, 2011 and is being played at Odeon Cinemas throughout the UK. Directed by Brad Bird and distributed by Paramount Pictures, the film star's Tom Cruise, Simon Pegg, Paula Patton and Jeremy Renner. For fans of the Mission Impossible series, Mission Impossible - Ghost Protocol will definitely not be a let down, as the film is an effective adventure thriller that everyone will enjoy, not just the serious Mission Impossible fans.

Tom Cruise plays Ethan Hunt, an international spy. In the film, the IMF has been blamed for a global bombing plot and it is Hunt's mission to clear the name of the IMF. Hunt enlists new recruits and leads them in disguise and in disgrace and without notice because his team has been disowned by the US government who solemnly invoked "ghost protocol" Without clearing the name of IMF, there is no hope for the organization, or its members.

Mission Impossible - Ghost Protocol is Hunt's toughest mission, as the organization has gone into shutdown, forced undercover and has no contact or no help.

The bombing that the organization has been accused of was at the Kremlin and now it is essential that they clear their name, for the sake of their own lives. The action adventure include having to recapture a nuclear activation device that was invented by a crazy terrorist.

The film is definitely not a let down for those that love adventure with a bit of romance and humor. Mission Impossible - Ghost Protocal is that film and one that is just another in the highly successful Mission Impossible series only Ghost Protocal offers more action and more adrenaline that you could imagine. It is a great flick and one that will keep you interested throughout the entire 133 minutes. The film does contain moderate violence, and may not be appropriate for children.

For those that have seen the film at Odeon's Cinemas in the UK, the leading vote is five stars, grading the film as fantastic.

Odeon's Cinemas offers films in IMAX and 3D and features many special perks for their movie goers which include Tuesday, Teen and Family discounts with a Odeon Premiere Club membership. They also make movie going a bit more than the opportunity to see a movie with the opportunity to win a ski holiday with Mission Impossible - Ghost Protocal and a chance to enter to win a trip to Stockholm with "The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo".

The Cinema's are the leading UK cinemas that feature a variety of movies with many different screens and wonderful sound and quality. For the little ones, there are special packages where they can enjoy a treat, popcorn and a drink for a minimal cost. Although, it is not suggested to take the little ones to Mission Impossible - Ghost Protocol.
