Tents are used for a wide range of purposes, from parties to recreational camping, from shelter to military uses. "Marquees" or party tent are very common for birthday parties, public speeches fairs and large weddings and gatherings. Most of them are manufactured from polyethylene and also with the ones having better quality from PVC. They are usually having a width of 20 to 150 feet and from 10 to 400 feet in length. Party tents are usually colorful, very sturdy and impressive. They are usually of different colors but white is the most popular choice. You should have the idea about how to purchase the perfect party tent that will save your time and money. You will find various online shops which offer Marquee for sale.

1.You should decide how big your party tent should be. Your decision should be based on the number of people expecting for attending the party and the available space for organizing for the party. Generally, each party guest needs about 8 square feet of tent space to move around comfortably. For a sit-down party in a banquet, the minimum space required per person should be about 12 square feet.

2.It is must to have a perfect decision about how much you are willing to spend for the party tent.

3.You can make use of phone directory or take the help of online to look up shops that have party tents and Marquee for sale. Go to the online stores so that you can see what the party tent looks like.

4.Buy Marquees if you want something practical and cheap and if you want to conserve space. These are most ideal for simple parties and speeches. The audience can easily have a full view of the speaker as inside the tent there are no posts, the host or the event. Join this party tent together in various different shapes if you want to increase space. If you want something that should be more stable and durable then go for aluminum frame marquees.

5.Buy Pole Tents if you have a plan a function in which a large number of people are going to attend, especially for weddings.
