Are you planning to host a cool bowling party for your friends shortly? If yes, take a look at a list of six effective steps in which an event can be organized at its best so as to entertain your guests and enjoy the occasion to its fullest.

Make The Invitations- You can try using a round shaped plastic lid as the template. Get a circle traced on a glitter way. In a similar manner get another circle traced on a black paper. Cut both the circles and punch 3 holes in the paper using a whole puncher. Write the party details with gel pens on the back colored circles. Finally glue the two circles together and allow it to dry. Hand over the invites to your buddies and closed ones whom you wish to see in the party.

Design A Nice bowling partyâ€•- Any event without a prize is no fun. Therefore, prior to organizing the event, paint a styrophoam ball using acrylic paints. Allow it for dry for a few minutes. Draw 3 black circles for the holes. Make the ball stand upside down as a disposable cup and name it as â€œBowling Queenâ€•..

Bowling Shirts- Ask the guests to bring a particular colored shirt to wear in the event. If you wish to play in groups, getting the members of each team wear a specific colored dress is going to add further value to the competition.

Use Nick Names- Similar to what is done in the T20 cricket of late, use nick names for each of the participating players.

Return Offer- As a token of appreciation, hand over a small return gift to each of the invitees to make them happy and at the same time thank them for their presence and activities.
