News is something that reaches out to each and everyone in the whole world. It is a very popular and strong weapon to reach out to the masses. People from every nook and corner of the world nowadays prefer to update themselves with the very recent and latest current news. This is done with the help of various news sources like newspapers, television, online news, news blogs, and news alerts via cell phones, etc.

Today news has reached out to every nation and people all across the globe are keen on educating themselves with the current news. This news is brought to you in the form of breaking news. The newspapers and television channels and news websites broadcast news in such a way that the main news headlines are highlighted. Thus, in this way, even if people can't read the whole story of whatsoever is going around, they at least have a brief idea about the whereabouts of the nation.

Television is regarded as the most popular source of delivering news to the public. All the current news is broadcasted as news headline thus making it easier for the viewers to understand the news. There are various news channels in different languages. So, we can choose the language according to our own convenience which indeed helps us to understand the news in a better way.

Newspapers are another prominent medium of delivering news to the people. Newspapers have all the latest and current news related to sports, entertainment, politics, health and beauty, celebrity gossip, etc. Newspapers, too, are available in different languages like English, Hindi, Marathi, Tamil, Punjabi, etc and thus, one can read the latest news headlines in their own preferable language which will help them in understanding the news in a better way.

Today news is also made available to us on internet which is considered as egg in one's beer. This is because a lot of people are so occupied with their work that they hardly get time to watch television or read newspapers. Thus Breaking news proves to be a blessing for them as it helps in saving time. All the news updates are made available online on these websites and news blogs and can be accessed from anywhere and at anytime. News online is the same as TV news, in fact inline news is more fresh as it is updated in every couple of minutes.
