If you use electronic cigarettes or youâ€™ve been considering using them, youâ€™ve likely come across t term â€˜E Liquid.â€• Simply put, E Liquid is the liquid which is vaporized to create a smoking experience. While old-fashioned cigarettes all have the same general tobacco base, the variety in E Liquid selections makes it possible to customize your smoking (vaping) experience to suit your mood. Read below to learn more about E Liquid, and enjoy using your electronic cigarette.

â€¢ E Liquid is blessedly free from many of the dangerous compounds that make the act of tobacco smoking so maligned. You wonâ€™t find tar or the makings of carbon monoxide in an E Liquid base, and that is good news to the many people who smoke electronic cigarettes expressly to avoid the negative ramifications that can come with lighting up tobacco. Select your E Liquid with or without nicotine. If you are selecting e cigs for their smoking cessation properties, you may want to consider starting with vapors that include nicotine and slowly lowering the dose until you are enjoying the vapors without the addicting property. Most E Liquids do contain propylene glycol or glycerin.

â€¢ The neutrality of the E Liquid base makes it perfect for additives. One reason that e cigs have revolutionized the act of smoking is the sheer variety of flavors that are available. Sweet and savory flavors abound for the adventurous, with chocolate cake, cookie dough, chocolate mint, espresso, cherry and more offering a unique smoking experience. For traditionalists, tobacco flavor is available as well. Create customized blends with different vapors or keep the E Liquid selection straightforward. This is you vaping experience; itâ€™s your choice!

â€¢ The positives of E Liquid as a vaping base are numerous. Gone are the days when smokers carried the evidence of their habit on their clothes. Vapors produced by E Liquid-filled e cigs is odorless and will not adhere to clothing. Also, E Liquid does not change the appearance of teeth. There is no fear of yellowing or browning of your pearly whites, as E Liquid will not stain them. E Cigs are good for your pocketbook as well. They are much less expensive than classic cigarettes, and the endless flavor options give you plenty of opportunities to jazz up your smoking experience. There are so many reasons to give e cigs and E Liquid a try. If you are used to asking for a light, give e cigs a try. Youâ€™ll likely never have to ask for one again.
