Those who want to buy gold coins can visit the websites of various bullion dealers from where they can purchase them directly. There are many reputed dealers who are in the field for more than a decade. These dealers update their websites everyday so that customers can get the coins at the best prices. The reputed bullion dealers offer the best quality gold bars at the most competitive prices. Against orders placed online they send the penny by insured post to avoid transit risks. Among the various types of one ounce coins Krugerrands have the highest demand and they are easily available. When compared with all other types of one ounce bullion products the price of Krugerrands is the lowest. The advantage of this type of coin is that even the small investors can afford to buy them though they are not as elegant in appearance as other sovereigns. Though gold bars are cheaper to coins resale of the bar is not easy. Bars like one kg gold bars can be sold only to very big dealers.

The bullion coins are produced by the national mints and other private manufacturers. These manufacturers produce a range of bars that are 0.9999 and they are available in 100 g, 50 gm, 20 g, 10 gm and 5 g. Coins are also available in 1 oz, Â½ oz, Â¼ oz and 1/10 oz etc. In the investment market the individual investors, traders and retailers who want to buy gold coins can select them among the high quality ones of private manufacturers and the national mints. All these coins are free of VAT. Moreover, most of the companies that manufacture bullion are ready to repurchase as well. The manufacturers have the most advanced facilities to refine gold. They follow the Miller Process to refine scrap to fine gold of 0.9999 purity.

The buyers can select their coins from an extensive range. Krugerrand and Maple are considered as the most popular varieties of sovereign models. The bullion dealers ensure the best customer service. The customers purchase them through a very simplified procedure. For any queries customers can contact them over phone. The number of investors in gold bullion increases steadily owing to the uncertainty in the global stock market. Moreover, all types of economic setbacks and credit crunch etc. have made more investors to opt for bullion purchase. The prices of bullion coins always depend on the price of gold and the prices are compared on the basis of the percentage premium.
