Katra or Katra Vaishno Devi, as it is commonly known, is a tiny city in Jammu and Kashmir, India, located in the foothills of the Trikuta Mountains, where the sacred shrine of Mata Vaishno Devi is located. It is component of the Reasi District and is located 42 km from the city of Jammu. Shri Mata Vaishno Devi University, one of the leading technical colleges of India is also positioned here. Katra serves as the base camp out for pilgrims who visit Vaishno Devi. It has a thriving tourism industry that offers plenty of hotels, visitor houses, restaurants, dhabas, fast-food joints that fit all kinds of budgets. Free lodging is offered by some registered trusts in the form of Sarais for the poor. The variety of pilgrims that visit the shrine every year has increased from 1.4 million in 1986 to 8.2 million in 2009. Above the years, a lot has changed, but one should not miss the prospect to walk through the leading bazaar (market) for buying (do not forget/hesitate to negotiate a bit) souvenirs, dryfruits, woolen garments, hosiery, leather jackets, etc.

To reach Vaishno Devi temple the pilgrims have to register at the Katra before starting the trek. By registering, the pilgrims get unexpected insurance while they are on the trek for 1 lakh INR. It is a trek of 13.5 km. There is an additional trek (1.5 km) from Vaishno Devi temple for Baba Bhaironnath. It is said that the pilgrimage is not complete until you visit this temple at last. The scenery throughout the trek is highly attractive.
