Administration is a vital aspect of every organization. No organization can run smoothly without efficient management of administrative tasks. With the rapid growth in industrialization; need for efficient administrative executives have increased. Specially, there is a rapid demand for business administration executives. Business administration executives helps in managing all essential functions of a business such as marketing, management, services, finance etc. With enormous opportunities in business administration, more and more students are taking up online business administration courses. These courses focus on all aspects of business such as international business, finance, tax laws, business ethics, accounting, statistics, and using computers in business.

At the present time, when internet has emerged as an important means of getting everything and anything, it has also emerged as powerful medium of education. Nowadays, most of the reputed universities are offering education through distance learning programmes such as MCA distance learning, MBA distance learning programme etc. There are many benefits of taking up these online courses and few of them have been discussed below:

* Distance learning allows you to study at your own pace. You can choose your time and place of study for completing your courses. Such opportunities seem much appealing to those who want to work in order to make a living. Such approach also meet needs of students who are unable to undertake regular on campus classes due to time or distance constraints.

* Distance learning is one of the most flexible ways of learning. As students are not confined to given schedules, they can complete their lessons when it suits their schedule. Apart from freshers and working professionals, many homemakers also like to complete their study through distance learning modes as it provides them much flexibility.

* As more and more students are approaching online courses such as MCA distance learning, MBA distance learning programme, institutes are putting their best efforts to make it learner friendly for its students. Most of the courses are accompanied with instructor communication to foster better education experience for distance learning students. Instructors establish contact with students though e-mail and internet chat rooms.

* Distance learning allows you to save substantial amount which would have otherwise been spent in traveling, housing or cost incurred in studying at distant places. It provides easy accessibility to education, even to those residing in remote areas.

Thus, distance learning education system is one of the best means of removing educational inequalities and making education accessible for all.
