Foreign Language classes in Mumbai - How to select the right one for you by Bindas Bol Foreign Language Institute

Article published on December 26th 2011 | Language

Duration of the course at foreign language classes in Mumbai: Donâ€™t expect every foreign language institute in Mumbai to offer the same course duration, as they can differ hugely. Some foreign language courses in Mumbai operate all year round and at flexible timings as per their studentâ€™s flexibility. With these you would arrive at the beginning of term and study for one term or longer, depending on which level of foreign language course you want to study. Then there are others who allow you to start pretty much whenever you want to start learning a foreign language.

Strength of the foreign language classes in Mumbai: The strength of the language class matters the most. The attention given to each student decreases with increased student strength in a class. The perfect ratio can be verified by the number of students with teaching staff. The best ratio is one teacher for every 6 students. At our foreign language classes in Mumbai (Dadar, Andheri, Borivli, Thane, Ghatkopar and Vashi) total number of students is never above 10 per session which is our key to success in teaching maximum number of students till date.

Study material provided at foreign language classes in Mumbai should be best: While choosing a foreign language class it is very necessary to check if the class you select for learning foreign language courses is providing proper and satisfactory study material to you. The grammar and vocabulary of the textual content, for instance, should be up to the mark and a vital consideration to be made is to what extent the program meets your personal needs. We make language learning fun and interesting and also bring in interactive learning sessions to help understand foreign language courses in a better way at our foreign language classes in Mumbai (at Dadar, Andheri, Borivli, Thane, Ghatkopar and Vashi).

Cost of foreign language classes in Mumbai should be reasonable: With the increasing number in the competition of foreign language classes in Mumbai, it is suggested that rather than going not for a low budget or a high budget foreign language courses, you go for a class that will offer you everything that is required to learn a foreign language at a reasonable rate. It may happen that you pay high and later youâ€™re taught only the basics and given a certificate. At our foreign language classes in Mumbai (Dadar, Andheri, Borivli, Thane, Ghatkopar and Vashi) we provide certificate to our student only after he/she completes the courseand at reasonable rates.

Environment of the classrooms at foreign language classes in Mumbai should be friendly, fun-loving and creative: The classrooms should develop lots of group and individual inquiries that provide opportunities for solving problems and producing real products including active participation of each and every student. There should be a lot of brainstorming sessions as well between the teacher and students in order to create a friendly environment. Through years of experience in foreign language training at our foreign language institute in Mumbai (Dadar, Andheri, Borivli, Thane, Ghatkopar and Vashi) we have made sure that we provide a friendly and cohesive environment to our student.
