Article published on April 18th 2012 | Real Estate

Dubai which is known as the business hub of the Middle East has recently had a lot of boom in its tourism and real estate sector. This has brought Dubai real estate and property market among the best property markets of the world. The continuously rising number of tourists, visitors and immigrants coming to Dubai has increased the demand of real estate properties in Dubai to quiet an extant and it is due to this increased demand of real estate properties that investors from all over the world are attracted to invest in the Dubai real estate. The higher rate of return on the investment has been another encouraging factor which further excites the investors to invest in Dubai property market. This heavy influx of investments resulted in the construction of some of the most amazing, unique, spectacular construction projects the world has ever seen and it is due to so many out class developments that Dubai today is also known as the city of landmarks. These extraordinary developments include constructions like Downtown Dubai, Burj Khalifa apartments, Dubai Marina, Dubai Sports City, Apartment for rent Dubai Marina, The Palm Islands, Discovery Gardens, Green Community, Dubai Festival City, Arabian Ranches, Business Bay, office in Dubai and many more.

The Burj Khalifa apartments are considered among the most appealing place to live on the planet as it is the tallest building in the world and one gets a spectacular view of the Dubai city from such a height that it fascinates its resident all the time. Having one hundred and sixty stories it took six years to construct this master piece. Consisting several luxurious hotels, cuisines, restaurants, and marts, apartments at Burj Khalifa are the best place to live in Dubai. The building itself is surrounded by Stylish shopping malls, and theme parks creating a peaceful environment and pleasant feel. Also these apartments are fully furnished and are equipped with all the facilities of extravagant life style like Air conditioners, Wardrobes, Active telephone connection, Cable TV connection, Broadband internet connection, Kitchen with all its appliances, swimming pool, car park, garage, and gymnasium along with speedy lifts and standby generators.

Another attractive addition to the real estate and property market Dubai are the Jumeirah Beach Residence apartments. Apartment rentals in Dubai have always been high n demand because of the flexibility they provide to their residents like people looking for luxurious options can opt for served apartments or hotel apartments in Dubai where they get the privacy of home with services of a hotel and if some is looking for more budget options then less furnished, self catered apartments in Dubai can be bought or rents at a very reasonable rate. Apartments at Jumeirah Beach Residency come with all these options and this is why they are like by all looking for an apartment in Dubai. It is due to projects like Burj Khalifa and Jumeirah Beach Residence that buyers from all over the world are attracted in buying property in Dubai real estate and the reason for the real estate and property market to progress steadily.
