These groups comprise of people from different backgrounds but are well aware of the theories like wealth dynamics, wealth spectrum, and talent dynamics. They are well aware in the ways the money can be earned and can be made to keep running into the coffers of the individual.

The main agenda behind the creation of these organizations was to spread the message of effective ways of wealth creation to the common man as well as the various organizations that are looking forward to the ways and means of wealth creation that would lead to tremendous monetary growth and other spheres. The concept of world wide wealth is what motivates people who are a part of these groups. Apart from the groups that Roger Hamilton has formed, he himself is heavily involved in giving lectures as well as conducting seminars in order to make the people realize the real meaning of wealth and the successful and time tested ways of creating wealth. All these activities are only going to make the populations across the globe realize their dreams and their aspirations.
