Additional Facilities at Naples Airport by Lek Boonlert

Article published on November 29th 2011 | Aviation

Naples Airport appreciate that not all of their visitors are there for the tourism. Whereas, it goes without saying, that the majority will be looking for hotels in Naples Airport or slightly further afield, some customers are also looking for additional facilities to meet all their needs during their time here; Napoli Airport provides these additional services.

Business Facilities

Business customers passing through the airport have a range of dedicated facilities at their fingertips. By accessing the Telelink Internet Centre business customers will be able to access the Internet through PC equipment that comes with a full Office suite for all their needs. Additionally, photocopy, fax, telephone and video conferencing facilities are also available. Naples airport is also able to provide private spaces for meetings, offering any equipment, services and catering that may also be required, as well as several VIP spaces for those looking for a higher standard of service to make their time as stress free as possible.

Internet services are available in the departures lounge, in addition to a currency exchange office and cash points. There are also bank and postal office services to the right of Terminal One, within walking distance of the main building.

Educational Facilities.

As well as the business services at Naples Airport, there are also Airport tours available for all student levels up to secondary school between October and March of the following year. These tours are arranged and delivered by Itinera Sas on behalf of the airport management. For more information please email info@intineranapoli.com.
