Duty Free Shops

The duty-free shops at Helsinki airport offer a wide selection of merchandise at affordable prices. Many international brands are stocked in the seven duty-free shops that can be found throughout the terminals. Each shop has mostly the same items available and they range from perfumes and cosmetics, alcohol and tobacco products to sweets and souvenirs. They are the perfect place to purchase gifts for loved ones back home, a souvenir of your time in Finland; no matter how short or long or to purchase oneâ€™s favourite perfume, lipstick and alcohol. Visitors to the terminal who are seeing passengers off can use any of the shops located before the security checks and passengers are able to take their purchases into the aircraft cabin.

Shopping Facilities

The shopping facilities at Helsinki airport are some of the finest available in any European international airport. They are open daily and offer an array of specialty items. Some of the most popular are the books that are found at Readerâ€™s, toys and other gifts at Santaâ€™s Gifts and Toys, a special shop just for Moomin products, internationally renowned handbags and purses at M-Boxi and womenâ€™s and menâ€™s fashions at stores like Lacoste and ARG Fashion. It should be possible t find something for everyone at these tempting shops.

Hotels

Helsinki International Airport has two hotels located within its boundary, the Hotel GLO Helsinki Airport and the Hilton Helsinki Airport. The Hotel GLO has affordable and comfortable rooms, suitable for overnight stays. There are 37 rooms, a lobby bar and two saunas. The Hilton Helsinki Airport provides 5-star accommodation with over 200 luxurious rooms and a gym. The hotels in Helsinki Airport aim to offer the best experience for travellers.
