Article Side

Top 5 Beach Cities in the World by Samwalker

Article published on February 20th 2012 | Aviation

Hordes of Britons plan overseas vacations to get spellbound with unique, sightseeing attractions, indulge in flurry of exhilarating activities, experience the heavenly culinary arts and try their hands at invigorating retail therapy. However, discerning travellers often long for destinations that are strewn with striking array of beaches besides other holiday essentials.

Have a look at some of the incredible beach cities where one can relish the cosmopolitan delights and revel in potpourri of sun, sand, sea at the same time.

Cape Town, South Africa

The dazzling metropolis of South Africa, Cape Town is decidedly a true delight for holidaymakers. Boasting the rambling Indian and Atlantic Oceans, the South African city overwhelms visitors with its magnificent range of beaches. Infused with joie de vivre and offering panoramic views, Clifton Beach is a top scorer that lures thousands of beach lovers to book tickets to Cape Town. Visitors can also hit the gilded shores of Camps Bay, Boulders Beach and False Bay for basking in the glory of the sun.

Sydney, Australia

Sydney, the shinning star of Australia, is undoubtedly one big love of avid travellers. Glistening with unparalleled natural splendour and flaunting the legendary Sydney Opera House and other mesmerizing attractions, the scintillating metropolis is replete with terrific lures. The metropolis is dotted with captivating beaches like Manly, Palm Beach, Currawong Beach and Tamarama. However Bondi Beach, located near the city centre, is the prominent one that shows on the itinerary of every traveller who grabs air tickets to Sydney.

Dubai, United Arab Emirates

Air tickets to Dubai have remained a big hit among millions of holidaymakers and the credit goes to its world-beating attractions like Burj Khalifa, Dubai Mall and much more. The opulent city epitomises sheer luxury and offers plenty of opportunities to partake in recreational activities. Jumeirah Beach and Palm Beach are two remarkable beaches that tempt millions of beach aficionados to lay hands on air tickets to Dubai.

Melbourne

Another bewitching Australian city, Melbourne is an ultimate spot for beach buffs. Most of the beaches can be found just south of CBD. The St Kilda Beach, situated close to city centre, is a compelling stop for revelling in thrilling beach activities while Brighton Beach offers serene ambience for travellers grabbing air tickets to Melbourne.

Los Angeles

Besides offering the infinite options for entertainment, the city is replete with some of the entrancing beaches like Santa Monica, Malibu Lagoon State Beach and Point Dume State Beach. Apart from these charming shore sides, beach enthusiasts booking air tickets to Los Angeles can make way to Zuma Beach County Park, for taking in the delights of exciting activities. El Pescador, La Piedra & El Matador Beaches are ideal for picnicking and sunbathing.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/aviation-articles/top-5-beach-cities-in-the-world.htm - Article Side

Samwalker - About Author:
Sam Walker is a travel consultant. He writes articles on holiday destinations, hotels, travel safety tips, and cheap a air tickets to Sydney, Los Angeles, Dubai, Cape Town etc.

Article Keywords:
Best beach cities in the world, top beach cities in the world, beach in Cape Town South Africa, best beach in Sydney Australia

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!