Article published on December 2nd 2011 | Business

In the state of New York, security guards are required to go through proper registration and training as per the Security Guard Act of 1992. The Division of Criminal Justice Services, Office of Public Safety provides administrative oversight for mandated security training. The New York State Department of State, Division of Licensing Services has responsibility for the registration of all security guards.

The new york security guards who want an armed guard license need to have a valid New York State pistol license pursuant to Penal Law 400.00. They are also required to complete a Firearms Training Course for Security Guards before they apply for a Special Armed Guard Registration Card. Every year after they get their license, they will need to complete an additional 8 hour Annual In-Service Training Course for Armed Security Guards.

The Employee Statement and Security Guard Application that is provided by the New York Department of State needs to completed. It is required to obtain a New York security guard license. You will need to provide your Social Security number, birth date, employment history, personal contact information and answers to a criminal background check to fill out the forms. There is a Notice of Employment section that will have to be filled out by your employers if you already have one.

To be employed by any security guard company new york, you will have to provide them with your registration card during the interview to show that you are licensed to perform any security tasks and duties. There are many security guard positions available in the Long Island and New York City area. You can go through the classifieds in local newspapers or go online to check for any vacancies.

There are many companies that offer security services in New York. They provide both short term and long term security guard services. Their security officers are professionally trained experts and are always well prepared to handle all security needs. Whether they are uniformed or in plain clothes, armed or unarmed, they are always prepared to handle any situation.

Most of the security services in New York operate in the greater New York City area, including Long Island and upper New York. They are employed by corporate offices, gated residential communities, retail shopping centers, etc. They also offer customized security guard programs for clients with specific security needs. Thus, finding employment as a security guard in this state is not hard.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/how-to-become-new-york-security-guards.htm - Article Side

Carol Moore - About Author:
Curiosity to know more about a new york security guards or a security guard company new york?

Article Keywords:
new york security guards, security guard company new york

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!