Shape magnets come in a variety of styles and forms. Online printing stores offer you a baffling amount of choices in designs. But if you have a creative design in mind, why not send it to online designers and get yourself a customized magnet?

Some people just canâ€™t use othersâ€™ ideas. They love to see their own ideas transform into eye-catching magnetic pieces. This holds particularly true, if itâ€™s your wedding and you wish to send magnetic invitations! Sounds interesting, doesnâ€™t it?

Shape Magnets for Your Wedding

Magnets specifically designed to invite people for your wedding are created in such a way that your guests just canâ€™t ignore them. They can stick to refrigerators, even the door handle of the bathroom cabinet, or at the kitchen sink. This way, every time the person performs his daily chores, their eyes fall on your invitation and they can start planning for the day.

Remember, while ordering a design for your wedding invitation magnet, you must contact the online designer well in advance. This gives you time to make changes in case you get a better idea. Also, certain designs or patterns may take more time to be created than others. Itâ€™s crucial to relay your printing requirements in detail, along with the purpose of your shape magnet to give a clear idea to the designer of what exactly you want.

Calendar Magnets

These magnets serve as the best promotional tool for a whole year. An artistically designed magnetic calendar can enhance the room dÃ©cor as well as remind the customer about your product or service. You can even use such a magnet as a wedding invitation. Highlight the date of your wedding on the calendar. Even if the person is unable to attend the wedding because of some reason, she will always remember to wish you on your wedding anniversary! Moreover, it can serve as a cherished gift for somebody.
