Article published on January 10th 2012 | Business

Introduction: There is no denying that recession hit economic system in United Kingdom and United States of America and most of the world recently. Majority of the people had to face unemployment and redundancy due to global financial crisis. Now they have to strive hard to get their jobs.

Meanwhile, many of them have been coping with inflation, deprivation, starvation and poverty due to economic chaos. In order to revive their socio-economic life, plenty of recycling, remanufacturing and nonprofit organisations (NGOs) have been playing a critical role in U.K nowadays.

Recycle Cartridges - Green Tech For Your Charity: One of the leading roles in charity and fundraising in U.K is Green Tech. They are offering dedicated recycle cartridges services to their people for raising charity for various sectors of the country i.e. schools, private organisations, public sector, colleges, university, orphans, local football teams and many other organisations.

Recycling Toner Cartridges â€“ How Much Cash Can You Earn via Recycling Toner Cartridges At Green Tech? If you want to raise money for your school, college, university or even local football team, donâ€™t hesitate to get in touch with Green Tech. They have been proactively running their recycle toner cartridges campaign for decade in United Kingdom. All you need to do is check out the price quotes of your selling empty ink cartridges here.

Green Tech pays up to Â£12 each for your recycling toner cartridges. A free courier pick up service is available for customers. They have thoroughly professional, dedicated and skilled staffs, who will find out the exact price of your toner cartridges instantly. More importantly, you will be paid within fourteen days after receiving your used toner cartridge. If you want to get paid via bank transfer, they offer you the facility to get the job done.

Recycling toner cartridges here at Green Tech are easy to donate to charity. They offer you highest prices for your cartridge recycling in UK. More than 3000 toner cartridges per week are being recycled by the company, and this set to grow.

Some Interesting Facts About recycling toner cartridges program of Green Tech: Hundreds of thousands of pounds for recycling cartridges had been paid by the company to customers during the period of 2010, Â£75.61 pounds were paid on average to recyclers in 2011. Some companies have recycled up to 34 times in 1 year raising hundreds of pounds from waist!

College in Nottinghamshire was paid up to Â£904 via recycle toner cartridges. Company received seven batches from the colleges during the year. Charity for kids in Birmingham got paid Â£555 by single batch of the recycle cartridges. Animal sanctuary in Oxfordshire received Â£362 from the company for recycling used toner cartridge in United Kingdom.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/recycle-cartridges-for-your-charity.htm - Article Side

Jullia - About Author:
Final Thoughts: Recession has indeed hit the entire economic structure of U.K and U.S recently. In order to raise money for schools, private industries, public sector and local football teams, Green Tech has been playing an active role in recycling toner cartridges for charity in UK for one decade. a recycle toner cartridges | a recycle toner cartridges | a selling empty ink cartridges | a used Toner Cartridges

Article Keywords:

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!