Article published on July 3rd 2012 | Clothing

As the July season is coming, I have some great dress-up tips for you now. In the hot summer season, some cool colors which can make us calm down are really important and cherished. I think blue is one of perfect colors in the July season. Do you agree with me? Someone says that "A muted, pastel blue color is really calming and serene". And I really agree with this sentence. Here, I will list on some blue formal dresses tips on my page. Welcome to have a discussion with me.

Now I will show off my own passion and energy on the blue color in summer. As you know that the strong, bright and royal blue makes me more feel like 80s. And this time, I want to admit that the blue color can really make me think of the royal circumstance. Do you want to own a kind of fabulous and cool blue formal dress for your next formal event? As you know that there are many shades in blue color, such as the navy blue, royal blue and baby blue. Some other more exquisite colors like lapis, turquoise and cerulean blue also can make some exquisite and luxury formal attires. You can have a try.

Also, I will show off some fabulous styles of formal dresses in blue color with you, as well as some matching accessories. The blue formal skirts with tank straps and v neckline can really help show off your modest, simple but generous side of your own personality. This simple but generous style can be in knee length or floor length. Both of the styles are stylish. On one hand, the long prom gowns are really elegant and royal. On another hand, the short prom attires are also can be formal for your formal event. You can customize your own wardrobe according to your own hobbies. The perfect prom gown can complement your skin and hair tones.

When you choose the blue formal dresses, you can also have the blue makeup to match with your own outfit. The blue liner and blue eye shadow are also charming and full of feelings for women. Just keep in mind that don't make up too deep. When selecting the right occasional clothing and the makeup, you should take the occasion into consideration. Formal occasions don't fit for deep make up at all. In addition, if you own skin tone is deep or you have pale skin or dark skin tone, choose some blue colors in lighter shades, which can make your look more beautiful. We have to admit that the blue clothing look much greater on some blondes. And if your eyes are in blue color, the blue formal dresses are really perfect for you.
