Article published on May 7th 2012 | Clothing

It is easy to decide on what to wear to a birthday party for a friend or loved one. The parties are a time to celebrate and a chance to appear beautiful. Generally speaking, when you receive the invitation, you should look at it and see if a dress code is mentioned. If it is not, call the party host and inquire how casual or formal the affair will be. The key is that you should opt for a fitted outfit according to the theme of the special occasion.

It is suggested that women should choose an outfit that best matches the formality of the birthday party as well as her own personal style. If it is formal, a long skirt or short cocktail dress with heels is ideal choice. On the one hand, you had better take your body type into consideration in order to make sure the pattern will flatter you well. On the other hand, the choice of the color should be based on the theme of the special event as well as your skin tone. At the same time, bear in mind that the light and bright colors are more proper for a daytime spring or summer parties while the dark shades can go well for a nighttime or winter occasion. When it comes to your hairstyle, elegant such as updo should be landed on the list of the best option. To the contrary, select casual business attire for a more laid-back birthday gathering with a blouse and slacks or a modest tank top paired with a knee-length skirt. It is a good idea to accent your beauty with attracting jewelry pieces, ornate shoes and a stylish handbag.

Here are some instructions you should pay attention to.

First of all, it is wise to choose the outfit that is comfortable to wear so you can enjoy the particular day.

Second, never take part in a party looking like you don't care what you wear. This can send the wrong message. It's always nice to take a few extra minutes to look put together.

Third, referring to the fabric, it is regarded as one of the most important factors that you need to consider. Connect it with the season and time of the day. There is no doubt that the dresses made of wool are not ideal for the hot summer. However, wearing a thin material will not only look more appropriate, but will be more comfortable.

Fourth, don't forget to accessorize your skirt for the perfect look. It is worth noting that you should stay away from the stained or over-revealing attire, otherwise, you might embarrass the host.
