Fashion is a never-ending hype; and when it comes to the latest trend, men are just as meticulous as women in choosing the best apparels. However, unlike most women, men have little patience for primping up. They want to look their best without exerting too much effort or spending a lot of time in front of the mirror. If you are one of these men who want to look good minus the beauty regimens, you might want to consider these easy and laidback approaches to enhancing your style:

Dress proportionately.

The way you dress yourself will definitely make a huge impact on your overall appearance, so you have to choose the correct size of clothes that will suit your body type. If you are on the heavy side, it is best that you leave the tight-fitting and revealing clothes to those with leaner bodies because it will only serve to emphasize less than flattering curves. Wearing clothes that fit to a T is one of the best ways to looking good.

Do not underestimate the importance of footwear.

Some people would look at your shoes and judge you based on what they see. Women, in particular, are known to be big fans of shoes for a variety of reasons, one of them being because it provides “closure” to the entire outfit. It is such a key ingredient of style that it can make or break your look. Therefore, it would be in your best interest to think hard about what shoes would go along with your outfit.

Avoid excessive styling.

Unless you’re a model at a fashion show, then there is little reason for you to wear overwhelming or loud designs and patterns. The best approach to clothing for men is minimalism—this is especially applicable for those who want to look edgy without trying.

Style your hair.

Wearing rugged men clothes is not enough to seal your edgy reputation. You also have to style your hair in an artfully tousled mess. Try going for the stylish just-rolled-out-of-bed look but don’t overdo it. You want to imbibe a sexy, couldn’t-care-less vibe and not a dirty and gross one.

Hygiene

A complete and fashionable set of mens apparel would be practically useless without good hygiene. Nothing can ruin a look worst than body odor or bad breath. Shower and brush your teeth before strutting out in public so that everyone gets to see the best looking version of you. Visit mademan.com/mm/10-edgy-fashion-tips-men.html for more information.
