First impressions are made by how someone is dressed and how they carry themselves. Neckties for men, give them a smart and handsome look. Be it any season, neckties are one of the best accessories for men. The right kind of tie can enhance the physical appearance of any man. Men can wear them as a part of regular office attire. They are also worn as a part of uniform whereas some people choose to wear them along with their casual attire as well. Only wearing a tie is not important, one must also know how to carry them effortlessly.

Ties are in vogue today, be it for any kind of occasion. A silk necktie is a classic piece which completes a man's look. The design and color of the tie should be in sync with the person's personality. It also depends on the occasion for which the tie is been worn. A necktie can be of various types, like clip ons, bow tie, ascot tie, bolo tie and zipper tie. The modern necktie, ascot tie and bow tie are descended from caravat. Besides these, today funky designs are also available in ties. Although very few people can carry them off to perfection.

Finding right type of tie for every occasion is important. Ties are worn for most of the occasions these days, be it business events, casual occasions, weddings, funerals, and so on. When going for an interview, selection of the tie depends on the type of job applied for. Generally, it is a good choice to wear proper suit with tie for an interview. The tie in this case should be conservative and not flashy. For weddings, finding the right necktie for men is a difficult task. Usually weddings have color themes and the color of the tie will have to be in accordance to that. Most common design for ties for weddings is colored ties made of smooth and shiny silk like silk neckties. Bright colors are preferred for weddings. On the other hand, for funerals the tie color is black. It is preferable if the tie is plain black without any pattern on it. For business meetings again, the look has to be professional. The tie color should be in contrast of the suit. Color and design both should be subtle and not flashy.

Thus, ties I feel are one of the most important part of a man's wardrobe. They can make or break someone's look. Appearances are considered very important today. Everyone judges people from the type of clothes that they wear. It is a must to choose ties which go with the occasion and also with person's personality. One should be able to carry off the look effortlessly. Men in ties look smart and handsome.
