The school education of different schools in India follows different models. Not only this, there are different levels as well such as primary, secondary, as well as senior secondary. However, the central bodies that form the basic course outline etc of all schools in India are CBSE and ICSE. Both the boards are different in the level of education they provide to the students at the same levels.

Whichever board it is, the journey of the child from kinder garden to standard 9 is different from the one that starts from standard 10. In standard 10, the students are required to give board exams, whose results form the basis of whether they will pursue their future in commerce, science (medical /non-medical), or arts.

In order to start this new journey of their lives and be successful, the students are required to work hard and hence they take help of various mediums such as coaching classes, extra classes, guess papers, 10th board sample papers, etc. Among all, 10th board sample papers are used the most.

10th board sample papers are different based on whether the board is CBSE or ICSE. These sample papers are easily available in the market. A student can simply go in the market and buy 10th board sample papers books from various publications and on various subjects such as mathematics, physics, chemistry, Biology, Social studies, English, Hindi, Sanskrit, etc.

With every year, more and more questions and formats of sample papers are added to the main books depending on the guidelines issued by CBSE and ICSE as per the number, types and marks for each question. 10th class sample papers are considered as the basis for preparing for board examination. These sample papers not only help in knowing what topics and questions are important but also give and explain the different ways of solving those questions so that the student doesn't find any difficulty in preparing for boards. 10th board sample papers, hence, are very helpful in preparing for an exam that would decide a child's future. Not only this, it is also seen that many times when students take help of 10th board sample papers they are able to perform better than others in the main board exams. This is the reason that almost all schools, teachers as well as coaching institutes, advice the students to buy 10th board sample papers from the market so that they can prepare well for their important exams.
