

Article published on May 17th 2012 | College

Engineering is the craze of majority of the students with Science stream. Ever since time immemorial, a profession in engineering has been a number one preference for the responsible and hard-working youth. A large section of students appearing for 12th class board examinations choose it as their career choice. A flare for technology and a genuine will to work hard can help one carry out a flourishing career in this field. This extremely competitive career offers money-spinning growth and innumerable prospects for the competent youth of these days. Therefore, the enrolment for different technology courses has vastly improved over a short span of time.

In addition, the engineering field has branched out into numerous sub fields that offer admirable growth in the future. In addition to the long-established mechanical, electrical and computers, Bio-technology, marine as well as engineering in environmental studies have turned out to be a popular preference of students.

Engineering is one field of career that is witnessing steady expansion and attracting constant interest of aspiring young students. This fast-growing field is offering amazing service openings for the capable and skilled. To satisfy the rising demand and support the determined youth with holistic education, a lot of colleges of eminence have surfaced across the whole nation.

There are many Engineering colleges in Dehradun city. These institutions offer education in different streams of science and engineering.

DIT is a top engineering college offering Undergraduate and Postgraduate courses in various streams of Engineering, IT, Management, Architecture as well as Pharmacy.

DIT, being the best engineering college in Dehradun is the first preference of the students of Uttarakhand form several years. DIT is categorized 1st in private institutions of Uttarakhand. It is renowned for its placements, Affiliated to Uttarakhand Technical University (UTU), Dehradun. It is approved by AICTE, recognized by Ministry of HRD, Govt. of India and certified by AICTE for admitting overseas nationals to B.Tech courses.

The undergraduate courses offered in the college are B. Tech, B. Arch and B. Pharm. The courses available are Applied Electronics & Instr. Engineering, Computer Science & Engineering, Electronics and Communication, Information Technology, Mechanical as well as Electronics & Electrical Engineering courses.

The post graduate courses available in the college are M. Tech, MBA and MCA degrees. M. Tech is available in the disciplines of Computer Science & Engineering, Digital Communication and Thermal Science & Energy Sys Engineering.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/college-articles/engineering-courses-offering-amazing-service-openings.htm> - Article Side

Amber Dorsch - About Author:

Amber Dorsch is a specialist author of Educational Department and writes about a Best engineering college , B.tech courses and a Top engineering college . For more information Please visit us at <http://www.dit.edu.in/>

Article Keywords:

post graduate courses, Electrical Engineering courses, top engineering college

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!