Founded in 1971, P J Mechanical is a leading name when it comes to the construction, installation, service and maintenance of premium quality HVAC systems in New York City. The company aims at providing the best quality air conditioning installation and service and specializes in new construction, renovation, construction retrofits, and alterations of new as well as pre-existing air conditioning systems. The senior staff members have over 20 years of experience working with the firm and work together as a team to meet the needs of clients.

P J Mechanical takes pride in its commitment to excellence and its reputation for reliability. It offers the most comprehensive range of HVAC services, including new construction, installation and maintenance of existing facilities. The company specializes in large, complex renovation and retrofit projects, with a focus on high-rise buildings in Manhattan. While working on the existing structures, the company modifies or replaces existing air-conditioning and heating systems. This process includes remodeling of ductwork, major interior renovations and lifting and installation of HVAC units.

In addition to this, P J Mechanical also installs quality control systems to automate HVAC systems for improved efficiency. Recently, the firm completed interior work on The Setai Fifth Avenue- a new Manhattan luxury hotel with over 60 stories. The project entailed the installation of a sophisticated HVAC system for more than 200 guest rooms as well as luxury apartments.

P J Mechanical is also a major contributor to the community and has donated to several charities and foundations. Some recipients of company's generosity are the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Bone Marrow Foundation, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation International, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Albert Einstein College of Medicine, the Boy Scouts of America, The Feinstein Institute for Medical Research, United Cerebral Palsy, the New York Institute of Technology, Catholic Youth Organization, Habitat for Humanity International and Renaissance Scholarship Fund. Peter J Pappas, the founder the P J Mechanical was recognized and honored by the boroughs of Queens for his outstanding service to the community, and received citations of merit from the boroughs of Bronx and Brooklyn as well.
