Article published on December 8th 2011 | Destinations

Thinking about keeping a company retreat somewhere however have not chosen the location still? Glendale Az could be a beautiful destination to visit and moreover the Renaissance Glendale Hotel & Spa will certainly make your company occasion much more fascinating as well as filled with energy. The place is pretty near to the airport therefore you can invite guests from all over the world. Weather does not get freezing either therefore you do not have to be worried about what season your guests must visit in. Simply speaking, Az hotels as well as conference center in Glendale would be the ideal spot for your next company event program.

Regarding the Renaissance Glendale Hotel & Spa

The hotel is special with more than 3 hundred as well as 20 guest rooms, that means you have sufficient room to keep an entire organization. The Spa Botanica is famous for its service with treatment rooms which are outdoors. There's also a well equipped health club, indoor lap pool, round-the-clock business center, Soleil restaurant, Ray's lounge with fantastic outdoor seating, Caffeina's Marketplace Cafe with the Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport in close proximity. Whether or not you want an adventure or maybe rest, this hotel is the ideal place.

They've organized early morning breaks in mountains or maybe any other organized activity, Glendale is the ideal location. When there aren't any conferences to worry about as well as the guests have spare time, they can traverse the region. With the modern American favorite meals as well as trendy casual dining area, lounge as well as cafe, your guests have a lot of choices. The region also offers a great night life to experience as well as numerous amusement hot spots which will inspire you even if the sun has set over the horizon. Sports venues as well as various amenities are also available.

Conference and Company Events

With regards to holding conferences as well as company events in Az hotels, The Renaissance Glendale has a lot to offer. With its unique conference center in Glendale as well as more than 95,thousand square-feet of Conference as well as Media Centers, you can schedule whatever you can think of.

The centers as well as meeting locations have radiant colors themes as well as are highly enamored with modern furnishings as well as accents. There are twenty-five conference rooms as well as one hundred and eighteen single rooms with King size beds.

One hundred and fifty six double rooms are also available as well as around forty six suites. All this means you've lots of lodging options. The Conference as well as Conference Center is ideal for company events as well as formal galas, or for executive meetings.

The conference room is around 100,000 square feet that consists of banquet as well as meeting space. The hotel additionally offers event management services for all sorts of functions. You can select from the 3 main location options: The Grand Ballroom with 29,000 sq. ft space, the Media/Expo Center with 30,000 sq ft space and the Jr. Ballroom at 8,000 sq ft. of space.

Further audio visual services are additionally available as well as in fact, the hotel has an complete division devoted to this work who will handle podium as well as microphone problems for your comfort.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/about-the-renaissance-glendale-hotel-spa.htm - Article Side

John Husker - About Author:
Are you looking for a conference room Glendale? To choose from the best a hotels in Arizona, and to learn more about the world-class facilities and services, check out renaissanceglendale.com.

Article Keywords:
arizona hotel, arizona hotels, az hotels, hotel Glendale, hotel phoenix az,hotels arizona,hotels Glendale arizona, hotels in Glendale, hotels in Phoenix, hotels in phoenix az

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!