Pamplonaâ€™s greatest attraction is in July at the San Fermin festival. One can join the thousands of observers and participants in this festival which is more a tradition than religious although there is a strong religious stance to it. There are many attractions in Pamplona that would occupy the visitorsâ€™ time effortlessly with a full satisfaction.

Town offerings

The town center is a well planned structure with Plaza del Castillo located right in the city center. This spot is a lovely place to enjoy Pamplona at any time of the day with its beautifully tree-lined paths that lead to some of the cityâ€™s exciting ancient monuments such as the majestic cathedral that has a splendid French Gothic interior. This cathedral showcases some beautiful cloisters and impressive sculptures. The ancient walls, Roman artifacts and quality art pieces are sights that would be worthy of more than a look. The Navarre Museum houses many of the excellent art and history relics of the region for those who are interested in the colorful history of Pamplona and its surroundings.

Stay options

Pamplona has a rich and colorful history which can be discovered leisurely. There are numerous value hotels at the city center to cater to holidaymakers who want to get a taste of Pamplona like the locals.

There are many suitable stay options in Pamplona and its surroundings which are very affordable to tourists. Many of the hotels at Pamplona are comfortable with modern facilities. Their proximity to the city center makes them an attractive choice of stay which makes traveling to places of interest easy and convenient.

Most hotel options in Pamplona have very relaxing facilities for their guests; the public lounge is air conditioned to allow guests to relax and interact with one another after some sightseeing in the city.

All hotels in Pamplona would be fully booked months in advance to July for the San Fermin festival.

Bull running

The bull running and bull fights are two major happenings during the San Fermin festival. There would be thousands of people in the city for these spectacular sights where men and bulls run together on the streets with humans trying to avoid the bulls. The bulls are lured to the city bull ring for a stand off with skilled matadors.

Tourists throng Pamplona to get a first hand experience of the bull running and bull fight. The adrenalin runs high at the astounding sight of fearless men in smart matador attire teasing the luring the bulls in the ring before overcoming the beast with a stab of the sword for victory.
