There are a number of tours departing direct from your Busselton hotel which will allow you to explore a little more of this stunning area and the natural beauty of the landscape.

One of the most popular types of tour is to the wineries and vineyards of Margaret River. Most of the tours take in a range of wineries, from smaller independents to large corporate vineyards and all offer the chance to taste and then buy some of the region's renowned wines. Many tours also include a visit to some of the area's breweries, cheese producers and chocolate makers and include a lunch featuring some of Australia's wild foods. Truly a gourmand's delight!

The flowers of the region are a huge attraction for many visitors to this part of South Western Australia and this is the place to see some spectacular wild flowers, which are unique to this part of the world. Golden feather flowers, scarlet and fuchsia leschenaultia and boronia, and multicoloured kangaroo paws grow in splendid abundance.

Royal Gala Tours offer a range of tours, which take in some of the sights of the region, including panoramic views of Busselton's splendid jetty and the Margaret River. These also include a stop off at Annibook Wine and Flower Emporium that stocks a superb selection of artificial flowers along with a number of other crafts and wines.

For a more active expedition, Bushtucker Cave and Canoe Tours explore the spectacular Margaret River region on foot and on water and the tour includes a wild food lunch.
