Christmas Revelries Around the World by Shally Smith

Article published on November 30th 2011 | Destinations

Christmas is all set to knock at our doors! This much-awaited event of the year brims the life of every individual with loads of love and happiness, which lingers in mind forever. Though the spirit of Christmas is same all over the world yet there are some exotic places that teem with stimulating ambience during the festival, beguiling people from all over.

Australia

In the month of December when the entire northern hemisphere is reeling under chilling winters, Australia experiences soothing sunny weather! This is why millions of travellers book cheap flight tickets to Australia much in advance to relish memorable and fantastic Christmas holidays in an absolutely unique way. The country hosts an array of beachside parties on the Christmas Day at some renowned beaches including Bondi Beach, Bells Beach and Perth Beach. With dazzling streets, illuminated markets and a vibrant aura, Australia glitters like a star and feels like a happy place during the Christmas holidays.

India

Being a multiracial country, India celebrates all festivals with same spirit and enthusiasm. Christmas is no different. A Christmas in India means singing, dancing, exchanging greetings and praying to the almighty for his love and blessings. The most prominent place to celebrate Christmas holidays in India is Goa. Not surprisingly, thousands of holiday travellers book cheap tickets and dig for all the possible travel information about Goa. The Indian state is famous all over the world for its blissful rave parties, sunburn events and dazzling beachside carnivals, which soak the travellers with pleasure and fun from head to toe.

Sri Lanka

The gorgeous island of Sri Lanka has its own way of celebrating Christmas and for some it is perhaps the best one! On the festive event of Christmas, all the beaches and restaurants of this awe-inspiring island stay crowded with locals and travellers enjoying various parties and galas. Moreover, the gleaming shopping malls, dazzling market places and vivacious streets of Sri Lanka are worth exploring during the Christmas and make travellers gloat over their decision of buying flight tickets to this breathtaking island.

Thailand

The Land of Smiles, Thailand transforms itself into an astounding heaven on Christmas Eve. With crowds singing Christmas carols, ornamented streets, awe-inspiring beachside parities and jovial locals, Thailand captivates the soul of all the travellers booking tickets to this amazing holiday destination during December. The beaches of the country are the hot spots for relishing great Christmas vacations and feature many vibrant activities like parties, live performances, lavish feasts, etc.

Dubai

The City of Gold, Dubai celebrates the Christmas in a royal and delightful manner that is befitting to this shimmering emirate. The locals of this outstanding city are renowned for their extravagant celebrations and Christmas is one of the best times to experience that trait! An array of exciting parties and events are organised on the Christmas Eve at different parts of the city. The legendary malls of Dubai, including Mall of Emirate, the Dubai Mall and the Sharaf DG are lavishly decorated on the Christmas Eve. Endless fun activities, suiting the taste of travellers of all age groups, are also organised at such malls.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/christmas-revelries-around-the-world.htm - Article Side

Shally Smith - About Author:
Shawn Trelly is associated with a Cheap Tickets as expert writer since Five years. Looking for a different way to celebrate Christmas break this year? Find the perfect a Christmas holiday destination for your family or friends on cheapticket.co.uk.

Article Keywords:
Christmas is the time to party and immerse oneself in the revelries of the world. With this thought in mind, hordes of travellers book advance cheap tickets to various destinations around the world to celebrate the festival in a grand way.

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!