Golden Triangle with Pushkar Fair Tour by Amanda Bos

Article published on April 24th 2012 | Destinations

Tourists come to India from all over the world. India is a hot tourist destination and tourists from abroad want to experience the many tours of the Indian subcontinent. India has many tours to offer the discerning tourist and all parts of the country from north to south and from east to west have something unique and enjoyable to offer all tourists. The golden triangle tour is a very popular tour, which is taken up by many travelers. This tour covers the capital city of New Delhi, the home of the magnificent Taj Mahal, Agra and the â€œpink cityâ€•, Jaipur. There is another version of this three-city tou and that is the Golden Triangle with Pushkar Fair tour. This tour covers the three cities mentioned above and lets the travelers enjoy the world famous Pushkar Camel fair, a traditional and one of the last kinds of fairs, which is held in Pushkar, Rajasthan every year in November.

The tour kicks off with the tourists arriving at the Delhi International Airport and then heading for their hotels. The day is spend sightseeing in Delhi and the guests are taken through the bustling street of Old Delhi famous for itâ€™s historical monuments. Red Fort, Chandini Chowk, Jama MAsjid, India Gate, Qutub Minar, President House and the Birla Temple are some of the attractions, which are visited by the tourists while in Delhi. After a good nightâ€™s sleep the tourists leave for Agra by road which is at a distance of 203 kilometers from Delhi.

On arrival in Agra, the tourists head off for a visit to the Red Fort and the Taj Mahal. After an overnight stay at Agra, the guests are then taken to Jaipur by road stopping at Fatehpur Sikri on the way. The next day the tourists are taken to see the impressive Amber Fort, which is situated on a ridge just outside the city of Jaipur. The traditional elephant ride to climb the fort is organized for the guests. This fort was built in the 18th century and it took nearly 100 years to complete. After lunch, the tourists are taken to see the other attractions of Jaipur like the City Palace, Jantar Mantar, Hawa Mahal and Ram Nivas Garden.

The next day the guests take a late morning drive to reach Pushkar where they camp at the venue of the Pushkar Camel Fair. The next day the tourists spend the entire day at the fair enjoying the fun and frolic which is part of the traditional fair, which brings together farmers, livestock, traders and villagers from all over Rajasthan. The annual Pushkar Camel fair attracts many farmers who bring with them their camels and other cattle for trading.

The next day the guests leave for Ajmer from Pushkar where they spend the whole day touring the city. The AnaSagar Lake and the Dargah of the saint Khwaja Moinudin Chisti are visited and in the evening, the guests proceed for the railway station where they board a train for Delhi from where they head to their respective destinations.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/golden-triangle-with-pushkar-fair-tour.htm - Article Side

Amanda Bos - About Author:
To get more information about a India tours, a Pushkar Camel Fair and a Golden Triangle Tours, Visit- indiansummerca.com

Article Keywords:
India Tours, Pushkar Camel Fair, Golden Triangle Tours

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!