Hangzhou City Centre Shopping by Lek Boonlert

Article published on November 30th 2011 | Destinations

There are many shopping malls and various boutiques to take advantage of within close proximity to Hangzhou City Centre hotels. Many traditional stores offer a unique retail experience that is different to anything found in Europe, so it is a good chance to pick up some interesting items to take back home with you. These include rare artwork, local crafts and many other lovely gifts.

If you are looking for Chinese souvenirs then you will not go far wrong if you purchase Hangzhou Embroidery, Tianzhu Bamboo Chopsticks or West Lake Silk Umbrellas. These are typical gifts within the area and you are bound to see a lot of them during your stay. Tea is another popular choice.

There are many stores in Yan'an Road and Jiefang Road, which are ideal for tourists to visit. China Silk City is a wonderful outdoor silk market, which covers quite a large area, so if you are looking for bargain fabrics then this is the place to go.

If you are after women's fashion, then there are many different boutiques and department stores at the Hangzhou Wulin Road Shopping Centre. Hangzhou Sijiqing Clothing Market is another great place to go for clothing and there are many bargains to be had, with much of it at wholesale prices.

Some decent shopping centres within the city include Intime (Yintai) Department Store, Hangzhou Tower Shopping Centre, Hangzhou Department Store Mansion and Yuanhua Plaza. There are many different markets, bookstores, gift shops and supermarkets in the city centre to keep even the most determined shopper happy.
