Abu Dhabi is one of the seven emirates that go on to form the United Arab Emirates. It has always been a popular tourist destination, with its pristine beaches, outstanding infrastructure, and hosts of options for leisure and recreational activities. Thankfully, there are many cheap flights to Abu Dhabi that can now allow you to experience the magic of this emirate, first hand.

There are many places of interests here, and one of them has to be the Yas Marina Circuit. It is used to host the Grand Prix and is located around 30 minutes from the city on Yas Island. There is a tall mall at the marina where you can shop for the best luxury products and then head to the observation deck to get a breathtaking view of the ocean.

This wonderful place also has a museum called Heritage Village. It is situated in the city center and is a fantastic place for history and culture enthusiasts. The museum will tell you a lot about the regions past, different civilizations and also the culture of these civilizations. There are many souvenir shops where you can pick up some fantastic gifts and mementos, to take back home.

Flights to Abu Dhabi will also allow you to visit the beautiful Khalifa Park. The park is popular with the residents as well as visitors, with its huge amphitheater, theme park, maritime museum and even a party hall. The park is aesthetically designed and offers a great place to relax and rejuvenate. There is even a mosque within the premises of the park which can be visited. Many airlines ply their services to this destination like Midwest Airlines, British Airways and many more leading carriers.

People, who have come on cheap tickets to Abu Dhabi, will be able to visit the Emirates Palace Hotel. The magnificent interior of the hotel keeps attracting visitors. You do not have to be a hotel guest to explore it.

Automobile lovers will adore this city. There is a National Auto Museum that is worth checking out. Although a private museum, you will enjoy checking out all the different automobiles that are on display here.

Being an Islamic country, there are many mosques around. However, one mosque stands apart from the rest. This is the Sheikh Zayed Mosque. The mosque, also called the Grand Mosque, has beautiful Islamic motifs and architecture that is worth checking. It is huge and has the ability to hold around ten thousand worshipers.

If you are looking for a relaxing and scenic spot, head to the Corniche. It is perfect for fishing and bird watching. This is a boulevard lined with trees and greenery that run along the city. It has some fabulous fountains that are worth checking out. The musical sound of the water is extremely soothing and relaxing.

People, who have come on cheap airline flights, can experience the desert first hand. This can be done by booking an overnight camping trip. You will live like a true Bedouin during the trip and eat under the moonlit sky. The sand dunes in the desert are amazing and you can also go for a guided tour into the desert.

People, who love shopping, will be thrilled to spend a holiday here. The Old Souk Market is popular for clothes, accessories, gifts and many other items. You can also pick up great bargains on footwear and jewelry in the city with its numerous air-conditioned shops and malls. The city hosts a shopping festival every year in March, when the best discounts are available on all the possible items. The festival is also an opportunity to win great prizes.

Many international airlines, such as British Airways and US Airways, cater to the rising demand of people wishing to travel to this beautiful desert city and emirate. So finding a plane seat will never be a problem.
