Pamplona offers more than the St. Fermin festival in July. There is always something exciting going on in Pamplona. The locals love a great feast and merry celebration of any kind. There would be historical monuments which are impressive with elegantly lined buildings in the city center.

Historical sights

There are beautiful French Gothic architectural interiors in the ancient cathedrals and chapels which confirm the ancient epochsâ€™ presence. Modern cloisters and amazing sculptures stand obvious in showcasing the local talents in architectural works. However, it is the ancient pieces that take the touristsâ€™ breath with the sturdy ancient medieval walls, Roman artifacts and pre-historical findings.

There is the local bull ring where hundreds of bulls are heralded to during the St. Fermin fiesta. It is a unique structure from past eras which has been conserved till today. It facilitates the local traditions and customs that are still widely practiced in Pamplona.

Hotels

Exploring Pamplona is delightful with the plethora of hotel choices. There are plenty of great value hotel choices in Pamplona that would suit any budget. These are strategically located at the city center or near the beaches which facilitate the holidaymakersâ€™ program. They are easily accessible to indulge in the best of holidays in Pamplona.

The AV Ciudad at Pamplona is a modern hotel in the city center located just between Ciudadela Park and the city university. One can stroll over to the city historic centre easily to view the historical sights or relax in the comforts and modern amenities of the hotel at the end of the day after sightseeing Pamplona.

This is an ideal choice of hotel during the bull running festival as it is well located to the event happening.

The Iruna Palace at Taconera Park gardens is another modern hotel at the city center. It is located close to the Navarran Auditorium and conference center which make it ideal for business executives. There are many convenient and modern facilities which would make a business stay pleasant and smooth going with relaxing facilities after work. One can also enjoy a round of golf after the business transactions are completed at the picturesque golf courses.

The number of affordable stays at Pamplona encourages more tourists to flock in every year to witness the St. Fermin festival. The hotels are usually packed with advanced bookings months ahead. Tourists plan early to be at Pamplona during July to enjoy all that Pamplona offers; bull runs, historical sights, university atmosphere, authentic Spanish cuisine and great Spanish hospitality.
