Spending Your Holidays in Cabo San Lucas by Aleena Moore

Article published on June 18th 2012 | Destinations

Located in Baja Peninsula of Mexico is the beautiful city of Cabo San Lucas. The city is popular for its outstanding resorts, great dining opportunities and excellent accommodation. Flights to Cabo San Lucas make sure that visitors can indulge in several activities as well as enjoy the beautiful views, which the city boasts of.

Most people visit the city during winter, when weather is pleasant and offers an excellent getaway from the cold northern hemisphere. The best way to reach the city is by taking cheap flights to Cabo San Lucas. The flights land at the Los Cabos International Airport. Many major airlines fly into the city. You can get cheap tickets to Cabo San Lucas on these airlines very easily.

If you decide to fly into the city at the last moment, check last minute flights to get discounts on your tickets. From the airport, you can take a bus, rental car or taxi to reach your destination. Make sure that you negotiate the taxi fare before leaving the airport, as the rates vary quite a bit. The airport is around 20 miles from the city.

Flights to Cabo San Lucas will allow you to see some of the beautiful districts that make up the city. One of the most beautiful districts is San Jose Del Cabo, which is known for its golf courses, resorts and awe-inspiring buildings.

The best way to travel between districts is by renting motorcycles or scooters. They are easily available and also safe to ride. While taxis are available, most visitors prefer hiring scooters and motorcycles, as they work out cheaper.

While the city is mainly a resort city, you can also get cheap hotels and budget accommodation. If you come on the cheapest airline to the city on a holiday, you can spend the money saved on staying in a beautiful beach side resort, with all modern amenities.

Some of the leisure activities here include swimming with the dolphins, visiting a 300-year old church called Iglesia de San Lucas and watching a naturally shaped structure called Landâ€™s End. Landâ€™s End was formed due to seawater and wind pushing against the land.

If you visit the city between January and March, you will be amazed by frolicking giant whales that come here every year. Besides this, swimming, parasailing, bungee jumping, kayaking, jet skiing, scuba diving and snorkeling are extremely popular among the visitors.

The city is popular with American retirees, as it offers reasonably priced beachfront properties as well as homes in many gated communities. The numerous golf courses are another attraction for golf lovers to settle down here. One of the best golf courses is the Palmilla Golf Club located next to the beach. It is well known for its amazing natural beauty.

Shopping in the city is amazing. While you have renowned brands with outlets in numerous shopping malls dotting the city, you can also shop at the local shops to pick up beautiful gifts and souvenirs to take home.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/spending-your-holidays-in-cabo-san-lucas.htm - Article Side

Aleena Moore - About Author:
Aleena Moore is an associate editor with Farebuzz. Farebuzz offers exclusive information related to a titleFlights To Cabo San Lucas Flights To Cabo San Lucas and a titleCheap Tickets Cheap Tickets.

Article Keywords:
cheap flights to cabo san lucas, flight tickets

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!