Salem and Chennai both lie in Tamil Nadu and have excellent connectivity. Both the cities are 338 kilometres apart and it takes merely five hours by a bus to cover this distance. Many express trains connect Salem Chennai stretch. However, still people prefer travelling by road because the roads are really good which makes this journey thoroughly enjoyable.

Another reason for popularity of Salem Chennai buses is the fact that you will get a bus after every half an hour connecting the two cities. Since the service is so good, people just go to the terminal and catch a bus. They need not get booking done in advance and thus a person with sudden plan of travelling need not worry for reservation as he would get bus ticket immediately.

Moreover, there are so many types of buses that you will surely get one which suits your requirements. This means that you can travel by both Tamil Nadu state transport bus as well as by a private bus. The cost of tickets is cheapest in state transport buses. Then you have the option of taking Salem Chennai Volvo buses. You can catch a Volvo after every hour. These buses are exceptionally good as they have more space, leg room, separate cabin to keep luggage and your luggage is safe. You need not keep checking and be worried about your belongings. Also, it is easier to pass time in such buses as they have a LCD to watch movies. Because of this shock resistant bus, you will have a smooth and enjoyable journey.

Other than Salem Chennai Volvo, there are other options of travelling too like AC buses, luxury buses which are similar to Volvo, non AC deluxe buses, non AC normal buses, sleeper AC buses, sleeper non AC buses etc. the fare of each bus differs according to the facilities enjoyed by passengers.

Just as the popularity of Salem Chennai buses, buses from Hyderabad to Tirupati are equally famous. The greatest advantage of travelling in buses from Hyderabad to Tirupati is that they would drop you close to the shrine and hence you can go for offering prayers immediately. There are not only luxury buses and Volvo operating in this stretch, but many cheap buses from Hyderabad to Tirupati are equally sought after and hence all sorts of buses operate in this stretch making it convenient for people from all strata of society to visit the shrine to pay homage to Lord Tirupati.
