Wineries Margaret River map is a must-have for anyone planning to visit this fantastic region. One of the world's most renowned and vibrant wine producing regions, Margaret River is well-known for its brilliance in viticulture. It stretches over 100 kilometers north-to-south and is around 27 kilometers wide in parts, consisting of Leeuwin-Naturaliste Ridge (between Cape Leeuwin and Cape Naturaliste) and bordering the South and Indian oceans.

Even though Margaret River contributes just 3% of Australia's wine grapes, it currently accounts for 20% of the country's premium wines. Regardless of whether you are looking for a fruity, fragrant Chardonnay; an elegant, crisp Semillon Sauvignon Blanc; a rich, full-bodied Shiraz or an ultra-premium Cabernet Sauvignon, you are sure to find it here. Your wineries Margaret River map can help you find wine establishments that offer your favorite variety. Local wineries are classified on the basis of different territories within Margaret River according to their physical location.

Since the first major vine plantations in the late 1960s, the Margaret River wine region has evolved to become known as one of the world's best. Equipped with something a bit more than dedication in those early days, local winemakers worked hard together to put their region's name on the global arena. There are currently more than 5,000 ha under vine in the region. Local wines have been blessed by the area's natural atmosphere that makes them a favorite amongst wine lovers from across the globe. The Mediterranean climate coupled with fine soils ensures one of the world's purest wine producing environments.

Perhaps due to its formative years when compared to centuries-old wine producing regions across the globe, Margaret River boasts an innovative and vibrant wine industry which promotes progressive practices and attitudes in winemaking and viticulture. With more than 70 wineries in the area, you may find it difficult to decide which ones to visit. Your wineries Margaret River map can allow you to locate the wine establishments of your interest and that in turn will help you plan your wine tours.

The majority of wineries in the area welcome visitors for wine tastings. Some of these establishments offer an array of amenities that include cafes and restaurants; some are classified as "family friendly" and have activities to keep kids entertained, whereas others have garnered the reputation of "boutique". Many local wineries also play host to events throughout the year. You should get a wineries Margaret River map to see what wine establishments have to offer visitors at different times of the year.
