The makers and manufacturers of this product describe it as â€˜revolutionary.â€™ This serum works in reducing wrinkles and increasing the production of collagen in order to give the user radiant, younger looking skin. The serum is a blend of natural ingredients that are completely safe and said to be 100% dermatologist tested. Some of the ingredients used in the product are Vitamin E, Polymoist-PS Complex, Glycerin and Edelweiss.

The overall effect of the product is to help the skin to look glowing, retain moisture, add softness and hydrate it while boosting collagen levels in order to improve elasticity and plumpness on the skin. The ingredient Polymoist-PS complex comprises a number of peptides that are a major necessity to get youthful skin, which may diminish with age or direct contact with sunlight.

Major advantages of Perfect Radiance:

* The serum is tested by dermatologist, which makes it extremely safe to use. In fact, due to this sole reason the possibilities of its positive effects increases.

* The company is providing 10-day free trial, which means you a choice whether you want to spend money on buying the product or not. This makes it a win-win situation for the user.

* â€œBeforeâ€• and â€œAfterâ€• photos of the customers are shown on the website, which means that th is worth the purchase

* Results of clinical study are shown

Drawbacks of the serum

* It is only available online on its manufacturers website, which limits its users and adds to the difficulty level for those who do not enjoy online shopping

* The serum is extremely expensive and does not fir every pocket, which makes it difficult to women to buy and use it regularly

* Not all ingredients are explained, which means it could harmful for someone who to allergic to a certain ingredient that is present in the serum but not mentioned in the ingredient section

* Contact information is incomplete

* No clear money back guarantee mentioned anywhere on the website

The Results:

Considering the cost of the Perfect Radiance, it may not be a smart purchase for those who like to maintain a certain budget and cannot cost a fortune on beauty products. However, it is not incorrect to say that the addition of peptides and Vitamin E etc. definitely improve the texture and appearance of the skin in the long run but the serum will definitely not have the instant effect as claimed by its maker.
