Inspite of careful budgeting in the beginning of each month, at times an unexpected financial difficulty may crop up when we least expect it. As a salaried class person more and more people are struggling between the pay days to cope up with high cost of living. Number of people are now considering Short term payday loans.

These loans are essentially given for short period i.e. for 2 to 4 weeks time or till the next pay day. You can get any amount in the range of Â£100 to Â£1500. The actual amount granted depends on variables like salary of the borrower or his repayment capacity. Finance provider is not concerned as to how the amount will be used. You can use the money for car repairs, wedding expenses, meeting medical emergencies or just any thing.

Your applicant in all probabilities will be approved if you fulfill all the following qualifications:

Should hold a citizenship of UK,

Should be at least 18 years of age,

Should have a valid bank account, and

Should be legally employed for last 6 months getting a minimum salary of Â£1000 per month.

This credit scheme can be obtained either by going to a retail lending store where you will have to do few paper formalities or applying for it online. To apply for online loan, you will have to submit an online application form which is available free of cost at the lenderâ€™s website. Online application process save a lot of time and effort. The approval is given very fast and you can be sure of resolving your monetary problems with in few hours. There is no need of faxing any documents.

A loan seeker having low credit profile can get the credit without any hassle as lender does not perform credit checking procedure. Even if your credit record reflects bankruptcies, insolvencies, late payments, and defaults you can still qualify for this type of loan.

There is no requirement of placing collateral since these are unsecured loans. A borrower who does not own property too has equal chance of getting the loan amount.

Some of the papers that may be asked by the financer are recent salary slip, proof of address, and proof of your bank account and debit card. A reputable loan company will always keep your information private and confidential.

Interest charged is slightly higher in this case. Applicant is required to give post dated cheque to the lender as short term payday loans are given against post dated cheque.
