At the time of our youth, we are not much concerned about our eyes or wrinkles. We use make up and we are ready, for the day. However, with the advancement of our age, fine lines begin to appear on our face and the things, we never noticed starts haunting us. This is the time, we start thinking about the effects of aging on our skin, which is also, felt on our eyelids. Scientific research have shown that with the progress of aging the elasticity of the skin is lost and the sagging skin gets collected in the upper, as well, as the lower eyelids. This causes wrinkles and bulges on the areas around the eyelids, giving it a very ugly appearance. Doctors recommend eyelid surgery Naples, for such problems.

Blepharoplasty or eyelid surgery Naples is a form of plastic surgery, which is hugely in demand by men and women equally. The reason can be a simple cosmetic one like to reduce the aging effect or medical, as well. This procedure comprises of the removal of the excess amount of skin accumulated on the upper and lower eyelids. During the process, the fatty tissue, which causes under eye puffiness, can also be partially removed from the upper, as well, as the lower lid, if required. Further, in this process of surgery the muscles of the lower eyelid can also, be tightened as well, as repositioning can be done to get a smoothing effect of the lid-cheek junction. No major surgery marks are left behind in the surgical procedure, as the incisions are kept unseen and made in the folds of the upper eyelid, in cases of upper eyelid surgery, and below, the lashes of the lower eyelid or even inside the lid during lower eyelid surgery.

Until, now, a lot of people have undergone this procedure of eyelid surgery Naples have been successful in achieving, the aesthetic aim of restoring back, the youthful beauty of their eyes. This experience has also, brought about a tremendous improvement in their self-confidence
