Your home is the place where you can relax and have a sound sleep after a hard dayâ€™s work. If the indoor environment of your home is clean and fresh then you can enjoy good health. You will be surprised to learn that if you are careless in maintaining the internal environment of your house then your house will become 70 times more polluted than the outdoor environment. There is one common reason due to which this situation may arise. That reason is lack of proper ventilation in your house..

Why because, when pure and fresh air is not present in your rooms for a long period then pathogens/microorganisms will infest the corners of your house, your carpets, bathroom corners and all. Consequently, foul smell will be there and you will feel uneasy. Hence, to remedy the situation, you need to open the windows on a regular basis to allow fresh air to come in and purify the indoor environment.

Again, due to prolonged absence of fresh air and presence of moisture and humidity molds may also pose the same problem like the above mentioned case. In that situation mold removal Charleston SC can come to your rescue. The mold removal charleston sc agency people will spray the anti-mold solution in the corners and fix the problem.
