Indispensable Information on Ledge Stone Veneer by MPG Stone

Article published on December 12th 2011 | Home Improvement

What is Ledge stone veneer? Rectangular natural stone tiles are placed uniformly on a thin but strong mesh to make a tile. Sizes are pre-decided as per customer demand. These tiles are ledge stone veneers. Ledge stones are pasted on the surface of a thin mesh, meaning joining to two thin surfaces therefore it is called veneer.

Ledge stone veneer usage: Ledge stone tiles are same sized ledge stone veneers to make an even wall cladding material. Ledge stone tiles are primarily used in wall cladding exterior walls. However, customers define feature walls by installing beautiful and intricately done ledge stone tiles. Apart from beautification of feature walls, these custom tiles impart security and strength to exterior and interior walls.

Exterior walls are free from climatic wrath and do not need much maintenance. Custom walls covered with surface ledger stone are cleaned easily by spraying water with pressure for few minutes. The result is ever-fresh natural stone surface ledger stone veneer. Wall cladding with natural stone is long lasting and people do not have to spend at regular intervals to maintain exterior finish of their homes.

Feature walls look exotic and ravishing to home owners and visitors. Initial cost of installation of rockface ledge stone on feature walls may be comparatively high but in the long run, these walls are less costly as these are almost maintenance free and do not need wall paints.

Is Ledge stone veneer available in all kinds of natural stones - slate, sandstone, marble and granite? Yes, uniform-shaped and uniform-sized natural stone tiles are placed uniformly on a thin mesh to form veneer. Rugged look is created with non-polished sandstone and shine comes with polished granite ledge stone veneer. Marble stone is preferred in feature walls wall-cladding with ledge stone tile.

Why is it popular? Ledge stone tiles cast beauty and comfort to people who opt for their installation. These cast a unique look and walls do not anything else to define them. Ledge stone tiles are exotic in their look and maintenance-free to large extent. People from all over the world crave to install these tiles to give a meaning to their walls and enjoy maintenance-free walls.
