Satisfying a lady is a tough task. A diamond necklace is too costly and an ice cream is too cheap. For the poor man, it may seem a daunting task.

Wrist watches are a fine piece of equipment that are neither too costly in price nor too cheap in terms of quality. Probably hearing the man's plea for help, watch companies are bringing in quality ladies watches that not only beat a diamond necklace in price but also appeal to the lady's sense of aesthetics. These watches automatically become part of the ladies apparel. Here are a few things for the confused man to keep in mind.

Make

Ladies watches from top brands like Rolex, Marc Jacobs and Tissot are always a hit. A lady always likes to look good and a branded watch on her wrist would somehow seem to enhance the aura around her. Of course, not all ladies feel the same way and some would settle for a simple watch as long as the make matches their personality.

Sporty watches

Mindful of the fact that today's sportswomen can give the men a run for their money, brands have modeled their range of ladies watches to suit the athletic woman. These watches are similar to the usual sports watches in many ways. The dials are bigger and with features such as stopwatch, chronograph, alarm and water resistance up to a fair depth. These watches come in sturdy material. A lady won't like her watch being fairer than her when she is out in the sun so, dark sports watches are the way to go.

Dress watches

Elegance and grace are not for ordinary ladies and their watches are not ordinary either. Top watch manufacturers have brought to their ladies watches collection the line of beautifully crafted dress watches that could at times be mistaken for a piece of jewelry. These are slim watches that glitter and yet, are subtle in their appearance. These watches are meant to catch the eye and yet, do so in a soft way. With thin gold or glittering chains as straps, these go perfectly with formal party wear.

Jewelry Watches

Just when you thought jewels are in the jewelries only, watch makers capture the imagination with their jewel studded ladies watches. Although bamboozling for the man as to why on earth would anyone want diamonds to tell time, it is perfect for a lady. These are the costliest among ladies watches.

Casual style

Every once in a while, manufacturers like Fastrack and Hugo Boss bring out watches in their collection of ladies watches that receive the approval of men as well. These are the casual watches which are not too overly polished or too shabbily setup to sit silently yet noticeably on the wrist of a lady. These are nice, sturdy watches that are cheaper than the rest.

Buying a watch is a perfect gift to anybody and not just a lady. However, you would do well to avoid replica watches as these are neither perfect in looks nor functionality. Respect the lady's intelligence and don't try to pass a cheap replica for a Rolex- the glitter won't last long in the former.
