Article published on November 29th 2011 | Law

Solicitor is a person who is authorized to deal with legal matters. They can even get involved in court proceedings. However this is limited to the lower courts like magistrateâ€™s courts and county courts.

Solicitors are not permitted to deal with the legal proceeding s in the higher courts like high court and supreme courts. If they have case in these higher courts they should appoint barristers as advocate and they can argue through them only. Like in other parts of the country, solicitors Glasgow also have to remit an annual fee for practicing. This mandatory for all solicitors and this fee has been remitted to law society. Solicitorâ€™s Regulation Society, which is run by the fee remitted by the solicitors, along with the law society is responsible for the professional regulations in this field. Any complaints about the solicitors are also addressed by this society. If it is not able to find a solution then the case will be referred to the legal ombudsman.

As per the law the solicitors Glasgow are permitted to practice in lower courts only. Though there are a good number of brilliant solicitors Glasgow, they can not deal with the legal matters pending in higher courts. However many solicitors are keeping a good relation with certain barristers and they will help them to fight their cases in higher courts. Certain law firms have appointed their own solicitors and barristers to cover all the courts. In such firms the case will be handled by a group of legal professionals and divide the cases in between them. So a solicitor can take care of the cases in the lower courts and a barrister can handle the cases in the higher courts. These types of firms are good for those who have cases that may go up to the higher courts. He can deal with a single person till the end of his case. Only the persons appearing in court on behalf on him changes.

However most of the solicitors Glasgow are practicing independently and they have an agreement with specific barristers. Under this agreement, a barrister will render his service to this solicitor in case his case has been referred to a higher court. The fees etc will be decided in between them and the client will not have to worry about those. Such adjustments between barristers and solicitors Glasgow are very helpful for most of the clients.

As the number of civil cases has increased, solicitors Glasgow are busy nowadays. Since most of the civil cases may not go to the upper courts, they will not have to worry also. They can take up such cases and they can finish it within their limits. No help from barristers are required.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/law-articles/solicitors-of-glasgow.htm - Article Side

Steve Mich - About Author:
Steve Mich is the author of this article and writes about Law news and other matters. For further details about solicitors Glasgow please visit the a http://www.austinlafferty.co.uk.

Article Keywords:
solicitors Glasgow

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!