Wicked The Musical recently celebrated its seventh anniversary on Broadway Nyc, making this musical the 17th longest running show in Broadway history. The show delights "Wizard of Oz" fans by answering questions like, "Was Glinda the good witch always good?" and "Where did the flying monkeys come from?". Peruse our review of the show and find out how to get cheap tickets

Wicked Storyline

Long before Dorothy and her friends paid a visit to Oz, there was a friendship growing between Glinda, the Good Witch, and the Wicked Witch of the West. Green-skinned Elphaba, who eventually becomes the Wicked Witch of the West, begins her life as a passionate political activist trying to right the injustice in the world. Glinda, formerly known as Galinda, is introduced as a spoiled rich girl who is as ambitious as she is popular.

The two form an unlikely friendship in Oz, where they encounter the local prince and even the wizard himself. Discount Wicked tickets unveil a charming tale teaches us that first impressions can be deceiving, and there really are two sides to every story.

Who Should See Wicked?

Wicked is touted as a family-friendly show, so plan to get discount Wicked tickets for your entire family. There are a few potentially scary scenes with flying monkeys, the death of one character and a darker story line than the original movie, which may be why the theatre recommends the show for children over the age of eight. However, parents do not have to worry about bad language or sexual themes in this production.

The older crowd, particularly those who grew up watching the original "Wizard of Oz" is sure to get a kick out of Wicked as well. Cheap Wicked tickets can be tremendous fun for the entire family.

What the Critics Say

Since this show opened seven years ago, the critics have been primarily pleased with the show's quality and production level. This musical has been described as a "spectacle," with plenty of raves over the highly talented cast and ensemble. The music, created by Stephen Schwartz, and the book by Winnie Holman come together in a delightful combination of gags and music to keep the audience engaged throughout the show. Cheap Wicked tickets will not only answer all of your burning Wizard the Oz questions, but delight you in its humor and fantastic imagery.
