Article published on December 6th 2011 | Outdoors

Inverness is rich in places to go and things to do. There is absolutely no shortage of activities or events as well as sightseeing and tours. Visitors staying at hotels in Inverness city centre will have no problem accessing local transportation to get around and enjoy some of the many great things to do.

In the heart of the city is its Old Town, which is the historical part of Inverness. This part of the city is where visitors can enjoy quaint sidewalk cafes, old bookstores and charming boutique shopping.

If you wish to venture out past the city centre why not take a walk along the beautiful river walkways, sightsee from an open-top bus, or hike up to one of the numerous historic castles. You can also make your way to Nairn to enjoy a seaside walk or a day at the beach.

Along the way you can stop at Culloden Battlefield, Clava Carins or Fort George for a little history. You can also make your way to the nearby Highland Aviation Museum in Dalcross. If you have made it this far, you might as well keep going to Loch Ness and try to spot the monster for yourself. Do not miss out on a chance to see the magnificent Urquhart Castle, which is near Loch Ness. For those who want to make it a very full day, consider a cruise down the Caledonian Canal to Loch Ness instead. The town of Beauly is a recommended place to visit for truly Scottish items and historic Priory.

Donâ€™t forget about the natural beauty of the Highland region. Renting or taking a car allows you to tour the open roads and explore the many roaring rivers, breathtaking waterfalls and spectacular mountains that are all surrounded by clear seawaters and beautiful islands. Along the way keep your eyes open for the castles, ancient monuments, gardens, boat trips and arts and crafts markets that await!
