In addition to a wide range of attractions to explore, tourists to Kilkenny are also provided with a variety of activities to choose from. One of the main activities in the city is walking. The city offers many beautiful parks and routes that enable tourists to fully explore the area. Castlecomer Discovery Park is a particularly ideal location for families and tourists looking for plenty of things to see and do. This beautiful park offers stunning scenery as well as a selection of woodland walks, nature trails, childrenâ€™s playgrounds and interactive events.

Reptile Village is the perfect location for families looking for a fun day out. The zoo offers over 150 animals and 50 different species of reptile to view. The zoo comprises of an outdoor area and a large indoor section, where visitors can explore a variety of fascinating creatures. Visitors are also given the chance to hold some of the reptiles and friendly guides are available to provide detailed information about each species.

Tourists looking for an adventurous day out may wish to go on a river safari, which offers the chance to explore the cityâ€™s beautiful valleys and wildlife. There are many river routes to explore and the canoeing activities available are suitable for both experienced and inexperienced families and individuals.

Tourists may also wish to visit Kilkenny Bowling Centre, which offers lanes with side bumpers and facilities for disabled visitors. The centre also has a bouncy castle for younger children and is an ideal attraction for families looking for a fun day or evening out.

Many of the interesting attractions and activities are not far from a selection of hotels in Kilkenny, offering individuals and families the chance to easily explore the area.
