Nice Things to Do by Lek Boonlert

Article published on November 30th 2011 | Outdoors

Many hotels in Nice are centrally located so that visitors can easily see all the sights and experience the most interesting attractions on offer without having to travel too far. There are a wide variety of activities to do in Nice and there is something to suit every taste.

Cours Saleya Flower Market

The Cours Saleya Flower Market is one of the most famous flower markets in France and is also one of the biggest tourist attractions in the city. It is open every day of the week except Monday (when a fabulous flea market takes its place) and offers an amazing display of almost every flower imaginable. The Cours Saleya Flower Market is also a great place to meet people, and there are several souvenir shops and cafes located nearby.

Matisse Museum

Henry Matisse used Nice as the subject of many of his most famous paintings. The Matisse Museum showcases works from Matisseâ€™s early career right through to the end of his career. The museum also has many of the artistâ€™s personal effects on display. It is possible to purchase prints of some of his works to take home as souvenirs in the gift shop.

Rue de France Pedestrian Zone

The Rue de France Pedestrian Zone in Nice is a hive of activity both day and night. There are street entertainers for visitors to enjoy while shopping for souvenirs and gifts at the curb side stands and shops. There are cafes suitable for people watching, which is a very popular activity in Nice, and there are some fantastic restaurants for the ideal evening meal.
