Article published on December 29th 2011 | Poetry

SMS is small word but it mean a lot to young generation of our society. The youngsters keep in touch with their dear ones through SMS. We can send messages to our friends within fraction of seconds. Moreover, it is the cheapest mode of conversation in this modern era. All the day when your phone beeps you feel that someone is remembering you it can be with their small message too. All the day you receive message from your friends what it means? Itâ€™s that they simply remember you in a day.

It feels special to receive message from your friends or sidings. It can be any forwarded message like jokes that chill up your mood sometimes, love quote that reminds you of your love or the special moment you spend with your boyfriend or girlfriend or may be any thought or quote on life which touched your heart or teaches you lesson for life. SMS may be of few words but mean a lot in your life. It relates to you and your life. These messages make your day special. On special occasions you receive special messages like on New Year wishes for New Year from your love ones or on diwali blessings from your love oneâ€™s for you and your family.

SMS is not only related to forwarded messages. One can chat with their friends through messages. Chatting is another way to share your thought or views with your friends or to know their well being. You can long chat through this SMS from anywhere you feel like. Itâ€™s not like chatting through websites or social networking sites where you need to have account and most importantly internet connection. You just require is mobile in your hand.

Also, one can send picture messages with some valuable message like missing you, happy birthday; love you, and many more. Also, with the advancement in technology one can send multimedia message where you can share photos and ringtones with your dear ones. This SMS has changed the life of people. To tell someone about something important one can simply write a message and send to the people in their contact list. You can keep in touch with your many friends by just messaging them.

Itâ€™s easy to send message than calling someone because of money and time shortage. Messages are not only keeping in touch with your friends. Itâ€™s more like remembering your friends once in a day. Also, there is trend of sending game messages or messages related to question about you or your character or quiz messages. Itâ€™s fun to interact with your dear and near ones through message.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/poetry-articles/sms-make-your-life-easy.htm - Article Side

Thakur7 - About Author:
Looking for a Hindi Shayari ?? Visit http://www.ShayariHindi.com to find best a Hindi Poems.

Article Keywords:
Hindi Shayari, Hindi Poems

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!